Forbes magazine recently studied vehicle safety ratings data from the Insurance Institute for Highway Safety and isolated models selling for less than $50,000 that come with a full complement of “active” safety features to compile a list of their Safest Cars for 2012:

- Audi A6
- BMW 5 Series
- Infiniti EX 35
- Infiniti M37/M56
- Mercedes-Benz E-Class
- Mercedes-Benz M-Class
- Volvo S60
- Volvo S80
- Volvo XC60

The vehicles chosen by Forbes rated among the highest in IIHS tests for front and side-impact crashes, rollover protection and rear-end collisions. They also offer as standard or optional equipment a number of active safety features, including blind-spot warning system, lane departure warning system and collision warning/avoidance system.
