

Summary of 2011 FMLA Cases: Valuable Resource to Employers

By Jeff Nowak February 22, 2012

Each year, the American Bar Association's Federal Labor Standards Legislation Committee publishes a comprehensive report of significant FMLA decisions handed down by the federal courts in the previous year. 2011 proved to be an active year for cases involving the Family and Medical leave Act, and this year's report captures nearly all of them. It is a great reference for me throughout the year, and I highly recommend it to HR professionals and employment attorneys.

The report can be accessed here (pdf). Although my FR colleagues and I contributed to the publication, Jim Paul and Bill Bush, who head up the ABA's FMLA subcommittee, are the main editors. Enjoy!
