

Possession of Drugs for Sale Charge

By: Jeremy Geigle, Attorney at Law
JacksonWhite, P.C.

Criminal charges for possession of drugs for sale carry severe consequences if convicted in Arizona. Individuals found guilty of this type of drug crime can find themselves behind bars of a very long time.

For simple drug possession charges, individuals will usually have to pay a $2000 fine or 3 times the value of the seized drugs (whichever one is greater). In addition, those charged with a simple drug crime will not normally have their driver's license suspended by the MVD.

To give yourself the best possible defense in court against Arizona criminal drug charges, make sure you have a knowledgeable attorney by your side.
