Greg George, Managing Partner of top security firm GTI Advisors Threat Management Practice Group has created a comprehensive due diligence report — among his many recommendations, he suggests that businesses consult a law firm - is your law firm ready to answer that call? SECURITY may be a lucrative future-oriented practice area awaiting your firm.

I recommend:

- 1) Check out GTI Advisors Threat Management Practice Group
- 2) Download (free) and read Beyond Due Diligence
- 3) Note the section "Qualified Legal Counsel Is Worth Every Penny" on page 18.
- 4) Discuss this in your firm and explore an appropriate strategy before you are left in the dust by forward thinking firms that will.

Footnote: Determine if you are the cobbler with no shoes (when it comes to security) — perhaps your law firm could use a few of the amazing ideas in this document as well.

Note: For international clients, this piece is clearly written for American audiences but I believe the vast majority of the content will be useful regardless of your location.
