

Man Kills Mother, then Posts About it on Facebook

Gang member, Rayshawn Laster, was found guilty for shooting and killing his mother. After committing the murder, Laster posted on Facebook that he had done something unforgivable.

On December 30, Laster had an argument with his mother, Brenda Laster-Taylor. Her son's actions worried her enough to call authorities. When they arrived, Laster had already left. He came back to his mom's house around 7:30 and shot her in the head while she was on the phone. Laster then sent a text message to a neighbor that read, "I killed brenda."

On his Facebook page he wrote:

"I'm sorry for nothing. My journey has come to an end."

"A lot of people will never understand. Why? Only a few know the truth. Life goes on. Solid."

"Thank u for everything u have ever did for me. U will never forgive me. That I kno. But im not askin for that. Just know I love u."

Around 10:20 p.m., Laster posted "They are all over. Everywhere around me so its only a matter of time."

Laster was taken into police custody early the next morning and was found guilty of first-degree murder.
