Structuring Your Veterinary Practice for Future Opportunities

January 31, 2011 by Deirdre Wheatley-Liss

Steven A. Loeb, Esq. of our Business Law Department recently hosted a webinar through Elevation Research Group, Inc. to a few hundred veterinarians across the country on legal considerations in the business of veterinary medicine.

Some points to be considered:

- How to structure a partnership arrangement
- Bringing in a new doctor
- Being bought out or earning out of your practice
- Owning business real estate
- Creating liquidity for your practice for retirement or your family
- Doing all this while minimizing Uncle Sam's share of your practice

Steve's topic is entitled "Structuring Your Veterinary Practice and Planning for Future Opportunities". A link to the presentation can be found through www.elevationrg.com.
