

Nevada Legislature Releases Interim Committee Assignments

The Nevada Legislature has begun the critical work of the Interim Legislative Session. Recently released committee assignments signal the beginning work of interim committees, including the Legislative Committee on Energy, Legislative Committee on Health Care and the Advisory Committee to Develop a Plan to Reorganize the Clark County School District, among others.

For a complete list of all interim committee assignments click here.

Brownstein has a proven track record of helping clients navigate the maze of politics and policy in Nevada, across the West and in Washington, D.C. Brownstein understands that successful representation means our clients need advocates who understand both complex legal issues and the intricacies of political issues and opportunities. Our deep background representing clients before the Governor's Office, the Nevada Legislature, the Nevada Attorney General's Office and the Nevada Department of Taxation, among other administrative agencies, gives us the experience to develop and execute winning strategies on behalf of our clients

Alisa Nave-Worth

Senior Policy Advisor and Counsel
anave-worth@bhfs.com
702.464.7061

Joshua J. Hicks

Shareholder
jhicks@bhfs.com
775.622.9450

Kandis N. McClure

Policy Advisor
kmcclure@bhfs.com
702.464.7097

This document is intended to provide you with general information regarding the Nevada Interim Legislative Session. The contents of this document are not intended to provide specific legal advice. If you have any questions about the contents of this document or if you need legal advice as to an issue, please contact the attorneys listed or your regular Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck, LLP attorney. This communication may be considered advertising in some jurisdictions.