

Video mediation can save you time and money on your next FINRA case.

Video mediation with JAMS neutral Jeffrey Grubman, Esq. is effective, flexible and affordable.

An expert in Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) matters, Jeff Grubman has resolved in excess of 2,000 cases throughout the country involving customer-broker disputes and disputes among broker dealers and between broker dealers and registered representatives. Prior to becoming a full-time neutral, Mr. Grubman devoted a significant portion of his legal career to representing parties in FINRA arbitration.

Advantages of video mediation for FINRA matters

Powered by CourtCall,[®] our browser-based video and audio application provides an efficient alternative when the value or complexity of claims do not warrant a traditional, in-person mediation session. Video mediation offers:

- Elimination of travel time and expense for counsel, the parties and the mediator
- Flexible scheduling
- The same exceptional service and world-class case management JAMS has provided for four decades

User-friendly technology

Our videoconferencing platform requires only a phone and a desktop or laptop computer with a webcam. Features include:

- Real-time streaming video
- Virtual caucus rooms for private conversations with the mediator
- Online chat functionality
- Document sharing
- Electronic signature capability
- Operator support for a seamless experience
