

I. March 2014—Tennessee Certificate of Need Meeting

At the March meeting of the Tennessee Health Services Development Agency, Jeff Ockerman announced that the draft home health standards are out for comment and he expects to receive comments back in early April. As noted in our publication of the February Tennessee CON Report, after the comment period, the draft home health standards will be sent for a public hearing and then finalized. The draft nursing home standards are still being reviewed and revised by the Agency before being released for public comment.

The agency approved the following applications during the March meeting.
