INTRODUCTION

ELECTION 2018

The tumultuous 2018 midterm election, characterized by many as the most consequential in a generation, ended as predicted: the Democrats took control of the House while the Republicans increased their hold in the Senate.

Indeed, it was a tale of two Houses. As of this morning, the Democrats have picked up 28 seats in the House of Representatives with the prospects of gaining about seven more as the remaining close races are decided, mostly in the west. Fueled by voter backlash from suburban women, the Democrat's net gain include three seats each in Pennsylvania, Virginia, New York, and New Jersey, two each in Florida, Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, and Texas, and one each in Arizona, Colorado, Kansas, Oklahoma, Minnesota, and South Carolina.

In the Senate, Democratic Senators in Missouri (Claire McCaskill), Indiana (Joe Donnelly), and North Dakota (Heidi Heitkamp) were defeated, while a Republican lost in Nevada (Dean Heller), resulting in a net gain of two Senate seats for Republicans. There are three Senate races (Bill Nelson in Florida, Jon Tester in Montana, and the open Arizona seat) too close to call, and there will be a runoff in the special election in Mississippi on November 27, since no candidate cleared 50% last night. Mitt Romney in Utah and Marsha Blackburn in Tennessee were also elected to open Senate seats previously held by Republicans.

To help you assess yesterday's election, K&L Gates has prepared a comprehensive guide that summarizes the results and their impact on the 116th Congress, which will convene in January. The Election Guide lists all new members elected to Congress, updates the congressional delegations for each state, and provides a starting point for analyzing the coming changes to the House and Senate committees.

Please click here to download the most up-to-date version of the 148-page Election Guide, which will be updated on an ongoing basis as more of the close races are called and committees are finalized.

ABOUT THE 2018 ELECTION GUIDE

K&L Gates is providing this guide to help you better understand and keep track of the changes in Congress. It provides a starting point for assessing the coming changes in House and Senate Committee and Subcommittee memberships. The following are included within this guide:

- All new Members of Congress are listed alphabetically by state along with links to the campaign websites, which contain biographical information. Outgoing Members of Congress are listed, with the reasons for their departures.
- Complete delegations for each state are included with new Members of the House and Senate highlighted in green to indicate no change in party and their predecessors shown. Seats that switched parties are highlighted in red for Republican pick-ups and blue for Democratic pick-ups. Races that are too close to call are marked with an asterisk and highlighted gray.
- Roster lists for each full Committee and Subcommittee from the departing 115th Congress are included, with non-returning members lined out and projected full Committee House and Senate Chairmen and Ranking Members noted.

SENATE COMMITTEES

Please Note: The information provided on the Senate committees in this guide contains information from the 115th Congress. Retired or defeated members are struck through. At the full-Committee level, the Chairmen and Ranking Members listed reflect what is expected for the 116th Congress as well as what has been announced. For Subcommittees, however, the Chairman and Ranking Members listed simply carry forward information from the 115th Congress until new assignments are announced. We will continue to update the Committee information as rosters are finalized.

HOUSE COMMITTEES

Please Note: The information provided on the House committees in this guide contains information from the 115th Congress. Members who retired or were defeated in the primary or general election are struck through. Members who resigned are not included in the Committee rosters. At the full-Committee level, the Chairmen and Ranking Members listed reflect what is expected for the 116th Congress as well as what has been announced. For Subcommittees, however, the Chairman and Ranking Members listed simply carry forward information from the 115th Congress. We will continue to update the Committee information as rosters are finalized.
