

Defending Burglary Charges in Phoenix

By: Jeremy Geigle, Attorney at Law
JacksonWhite, P.C.

When a person needs assistance with charges for a burglary offense in Arizona, they should look for a Phoenix burglary defense attorney with a track record of success. During the initial consultation, it is also important for a person to ask the attorney about their possible defense techniques for burglary crimes.

Whether or not a person is truly guilty of committing burglary depends on the facts and circumstances of the case. Sometimes, an attorney can work to reduce the severity of a burglary charge for first time offenders. Arizona courts are often a lot more lenient with people who do not have a criminal record.
