

The Manufacturing of Child Pornography in Arizona

By: Jeremy Geigle, Attorney at Law
JacksonWhite, P.C.

If you have been accused of manufacturing child pornography in Arizona, you need a Phoenix sex crimes lawyer who understands how to handle these types of serious allegations in an Arizona court and in a Federal court. You should also look for someone who has experience as a former Arizona prosecutor and can provide you with some valuable insight regarding the possible outcome of your case.

You can face criminal charges for manufacturing child pornography and exploiting a minor in Arizona if you record, file or photograph sexually explicit acts performed by children. Therefore, if you think that you might be under investigation for an Internet sex crime, you should also make sure that you contact a Phoenix sex crimes attorney. The earlier that you get in contact with a lawyer, the better. This will give the attorney more time to research the circumstances involved in your case.

As technology continues to advance, people may find it difficult to keep up with all of the laws regarding prohibited images and videos on the Internet.
