Miami, FL (PRWEB) February 25, 2013 -- Personal injury law firm, The Law Offices of Sean M. Cleary relaunched their website a few days ago with major enhancements. Visitors and all those seeking for legal assistance and information will find the new website well organized and easy to navigate.

Along with the mission and the core values of the law firm established in 2005, visitors are able to access Sean Cleary's profile finding information about his work, achievements, educational background, bar admissions, his impressive list of honors, memberships and other legal profiles as well as meet other staff members working at The Law Offices of Sean M. Cleary, P.A.

Practice areas where Sean Cleary offers his services, the frequently asked question area, all contact information, communities, news and recommended events are available in both English and Spanish.

“It is not easy to choose an attorney who you feel you can rely on, this is why I wanted to enhance the website, somehow make it more personal so people can get to know our firm through our website from different angles. We wanted not just to share pure legal information but give the chance to our clients to get acquainted with us through the videos, information on us, pictures and of course our achievements. “– stated Sean M. Cleary. “I believe this way without having met, they already can trust us a bit.” – added Mr. Cleary.

Besides contact phone and the opportunity to ask questions, from Sean Cleary, through online forms there is a live chat available, which makes instant communication easier during regular business hours EST time.

If you need immediate legal advice, you can call Sean M. Cleary at 305.416.9805 and get a free consultation.
