Setting Goals: The Who, What, When, Where, Why and How Questions

By Cordell Parvin on May 6th, 2015

I love quotes about goals. Here is one that I put onto a magnet and gave away to lawyers I coached.

When you set goals, I urge you to do a lot of self reflection. What do I mean by that?

Ask yourself the who, what, when, why, where and how questions. Try these when you are setting goals.

The Who Questions:

Who is important in my life?

Who do I want to benefit from what I am doing?

The What questions:

What are my strengths?

What are my challenges?

What do I want to accomplish?

What do I want to learn?

What do I want to experience?

What contribution do I want to make?

What do I want to have?

What do I want to earn?

What am I most passionate about?

What do my clients need the most?

What do I need to do to accomplish my goal?

The When Questions:

When do I want to accomplish each goal?

The Where Questions:

Where do I want to live?

Where do I want to visit?

The Why questions:

Why is each goal important to me?

And why is that important to me?

The How Questions:

How do I want to accomplish my goals?

How do I want to live?
